

Name: _____

Theorists

Fill in the best answer for each question.

Word Box

B.F. Skinner
Intellectual
Sigmund Freud

Environment
Jean Piaget
theorizing

Heredity
Memory

Howard Gardner
Researchers

1. _____ development deals with thinking, solving problems, and remembering what you have learned in the past.
2. _____ is an indication that intellectual development is taking place.
3. _____ feel babies as young as three days old begin to remember things that happen over and over.
4. _____ is the child's surroundings, home life and the attitudes of those around the child.
5. _____ is the traits that are conveyed from the parents to the child. Both of these factors affect the child's intellectual ability.

Name: _____

6. During the 20th century people began studying children and _____ about factors they felt helped or hindered a child's development.
7. _____, a Swiss psychologist, felt learning took place as a child interacted with his environment.
8. _____, a Harvard professor, believed that a person's brain has eight different areas of intelligence.
9. _____ theorized that a child's behavior is predictable.
10. _____ felt there are three separate facets of thought and feeling calling the id, the ego, and the superego.

Theorists

1. (Intellectual) development deals with thinking, solving problems, and remembering what you have learned in the past.
2. (Memory) is an indication that intellectual development is taking place.
3. (Researchers) feel babies as young as three days old begin to remember things that happen over and over.
4. (Environment) is the child's surroundings, home life and the attitudes of those around the child.
5. (Heredity) is the traits that are conveyed from the parents to the child. Both of these factors affect the child's intellectual ability.
6. During the 20th century people began studying children and (theorizing) about factors they felt helped or hindered a child's development.
7. (Jean Piaget), a Swiss psychologist, felt learning took place as a child interacted with his environment.
8. (Howard Gardner), a Harvard professor, believed that a person's brain has eight different areas of intelligence.
9. (B.F. Skinner) theorized that a child's behavior is predictable.
10. (Sigmund Freud) felt there are three separate facets of thought and feeling calling the id, the ego, and the superego.

WORKSHEET INFO

Theorists

This worksheet was created with the Fill-in-the-Blank Worksheet Generator on Super Teacher Worksheets (www.superteacherworksheets.com).

Worksheet Title: Theorists

Date Created: Jul 3, 2018

Filename: uvc5Q

Direct Link:

<https://www.superteacherworksheets.com/custom/?fi=uvc5Q>